

Please do not change the rules for tv and newspaper ownership. What we need is LESS concentration, and more diversification and local community reporting. When you get outside the NY metro area there is very little impartial reporting. If you disagree you are considered anti-american.